Case of join a team

- If you want to join an existing team: you will be redirected to the "teams" page.
- You will learn about the different projects proposed by the teams on the Country Challenge (recruitment announcement describing the project, profiles of current teammates...)
- There's a team you want to join?
 - Use the chat to learn more by sending a message to the team
 - Apply directly by clicking on "apply": an invitation will be sent directly to the team, and you will be quickly notified of their answer!

Create a new team

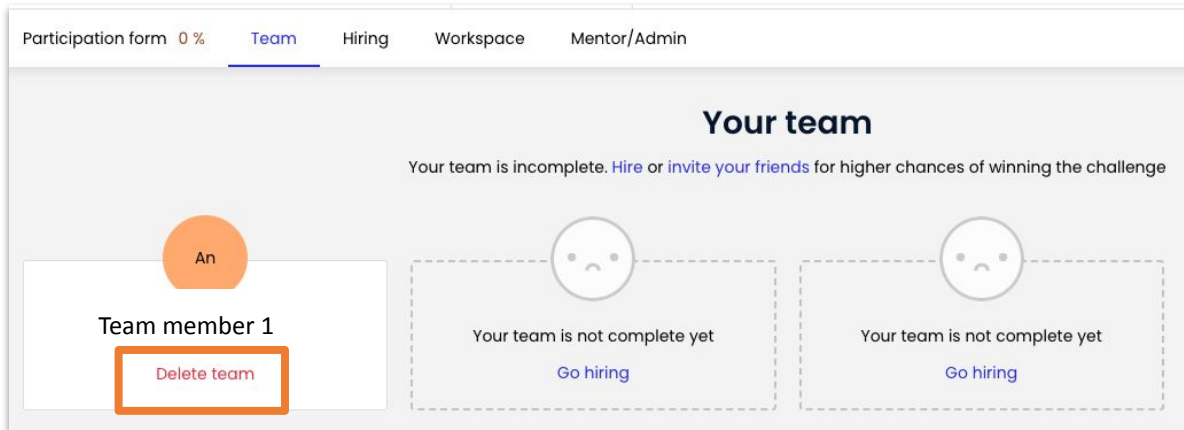

The image shows three overlapping screenshots of the Gorize web application, illustrating the steps to create a new team:

- Team Name: The first screenshot shows a form titled "Team Name" with the instruction "First, let's come up with a cool name for your team!". It includes a text input field labeled "Team name" with a placeholder "Choose a team name" and a character count "30 characters left".
- Hiring: The second screenshot shows a form titled "Hiring" with the instruction "Now, let's make your team more attractive!". It includes a text input field for a "Recruitment ad" and a section for "Skills needed" with a dropdown menu currently showing "communication".
- Participation form: The third screenshot shows the "Participation form" with the instruction "This space allows you to create your Participation. Your submission will be evaluated based exclusively on the documents you provide in this space before proceeding to the next step". It includes a "Go hiring" button, a "Team name" input field with the value "Equipe Test", and a "Submit" button.

Case of creating a new a team

- If you want to create a new participation (and thus a new team): you will be able to define the following elements:
 - Name of participation (project)
 - Recruitment announcement and skills required (visible to other users, to recruit new teammates)
 - Possible external invitation by email notification
- The participation/team is then created and you can now access the team space!

Delete your team OR leave a team

It's just you in your team for now?

You can delete your team, go to "Team" and click on "Delete team"

Your team is composed of several members?

You can leave your team, go to "Team" and click on "Leave team"

The team will keep existing with the remaining members

Note: you cannot remove a member. Ask him/her to leave the team

The participation space :

- project submission
- team members recruitment
- chat

Access the Participation space

The screenshot shows the 'Participation form' interface for Brandstorm 2026. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'My space', a user profile icon, and a 'View challenge' link. Below this is a breadcrumb trail: 'Brandstorm 2026 - Country Template interface - France test - test team fr'. A secondary navigation bar includes 'Team', 'Hiring', 'Workspace', and 'Mentor/Admin'. The main content area is titled 'Participation form' and contains a welcome message: 'This space allows you to create and edit your participation. Your participation will be assessed based solely on the information provided here.' Below this is a 'Gameplay' section with a 'Welcome to the participation tab!' message. It lists two main tasks: 'Create or join a team of 3' and 'Upload your project deliverables below'. The first task includes a tip about finding teammates in the 'Hiring' tab. The second task lists requirements for a 3-slide pitch and a 3-min video, both in 50MB max format. A green button labeled '> DOWNLOAD THE MISSION <' is provided. Below this, there are links to 'Fragrance Key Needs', 'Exception Fragrance', and 'Dupes Audit'. A final message states: 'You have time until your gameplay deadline (See Mission tab) to upload and edit your submission. Deliverables can still be edited after submission, until the gameplay deadline. Only one member of your team needs to submit the deliverables on their profile. Good luck!'. At the bottom, a status bar shows 'Your participation is 0% complete' and '188 days only!'. Two buttons, 'Preview' and 'Submit', are located at the bottom right.

The "Participation" space

The first tab available is the Participation form which is common to all members of the team.

As a team, participants have to submit:

- 3-slide pitch to explain your project (ppt, pptx or pdf format, 50MB max)
- 3-min video to present your team (mp4 format, 50MB max) by answering 5 questions based on Brandstorm Team criteria.

Access the Team space

The “Team” space allows to :

- Consult the team members, view their profiles and identify the number of vacancies
- Modify the description of the team (at the bottom of the page) to recruit new profiles: announcements, desired skills, image of your participation.

Access your Hiring space

The screenshot shows the 'ogorize' interface for a 'Student Challenge #step1'. The top navigation bar includes 'List of challenges', 'My space', and user profile 'Ma' with 85% completion. The main header has tabs for 'Participation 0%', 'Team', 'Hiring' (selected), 'Workspace', and 'Mentor/Admin'. A 'View challenge' link is on the right. The main content area is titled 'Your team could use new talent!' with a subtext: 'Multidisciplinary teams always win more easily than other teams. Below you'll find a list of amazing talents, search amongst them and invite them to work with you.' Below this are three tabs: 'All candidates', 'Pending applications (0)', and 'Pending invitations (0)'. A search bar and 'Filters' icon are on the left. The first candidate card for 'Iourival viana' shows a 70% progress circle, their location 'Swaziland / Agronomy / Electrical Engineering, General Practitioner, Communication, Marketing / St. theresa's high school', and 'Chat' and 'Invite' buttons. A side panel on the right states 'Your team profile is complete and attractive.' with an 'Edit team details' button. At the bottom, it says 'You have 4 free slots in your team'.

The “Recruitment” space allows to invite new teammates to join the team.

To do so, the participant can :

- Discuss or invite users of the platform (access to their profile information)
- Invite external people by email notification

As soon as the recruitment proposal is accepted, participant will be directly notified on their space, and the new teammate will have the same access to the team space.

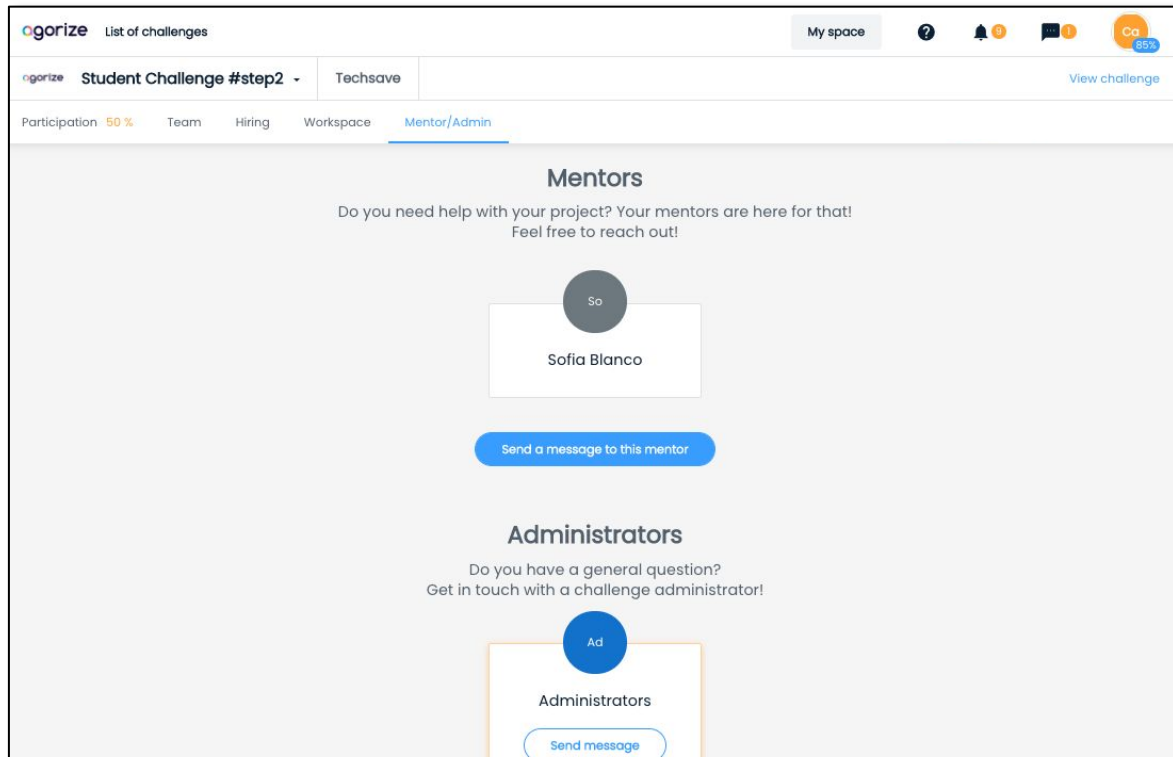

Access your Workspace space

The "Workspace" tab is a collaborative and reflective place, where it is possible for all team members to upload work files (document, Google Drive link..)

Once finalized, you can transfer a working document within a "document" question of your "participation" space (i.e. directly on the participation form)

Access your Mentors/Admins space

The "Mentor/Admin" space is where participants can contact the challenge administrators:

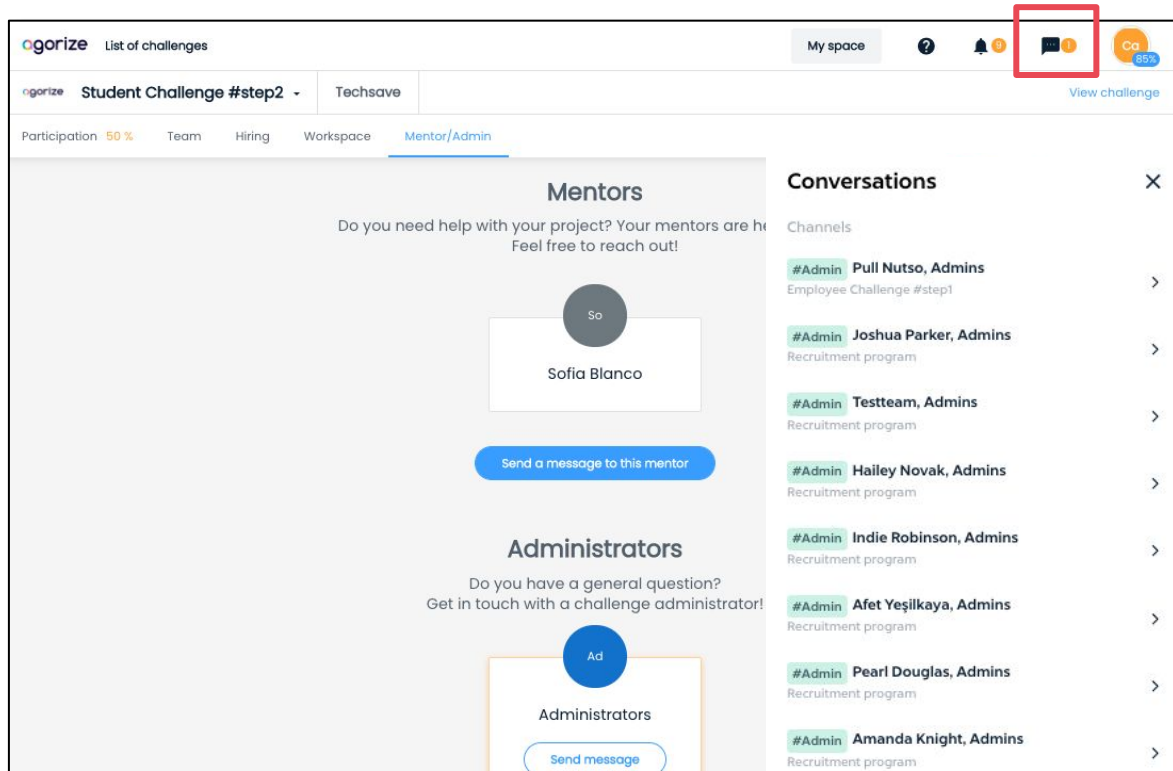

→ The Admins are the local managers of the country, and will be able to answer participant's questions about the challenge.

Participants can contact on behalf of the team via :

- Messaging (chat) by clicking on "send a message"

Note : Mentoring is not available during the Gameplay step

Access your chat channels

At any time, participant can access all the chat channels by re-opening the chat via the dedicated message bubble icon (top right of your screen):

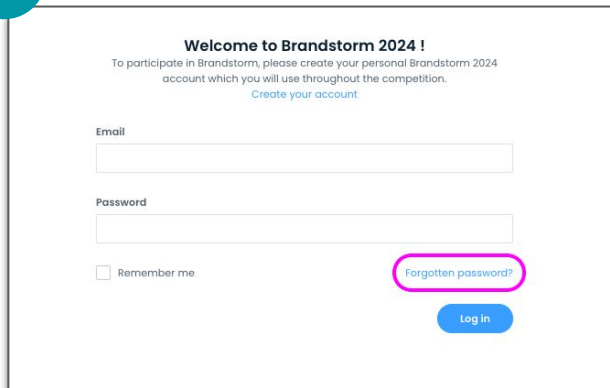

- Team Channel
- Admin Channel
